Security Alert

The screenshot shows a web browser window with a security alert. The address bar displays "Certificate Error: Navigation Blocked". The alert message, preceded by a red shield icon with a white 'X', states: "There is a problem with this website's security certificate." Below this, it explains: "The security certificate presented by this website was not issued by a trusted certificate authority. The security certificate presented by this website has expired or is not yet valid." It further warns: "Security certificate problems may indicate an attempt to fool you or intercept any data you send to the server." A bold recommendation follows: "We recommend that you close this webpage and do not continue to this website." Three options are provided: "Click here to close this webpage." (with a green checkmark icon), "Continue to this website (not recommended)." (with a red 'X' icon and an arrow pointing to the text "Click Here"), and "More information" (with a blue question mark icon).
